THE TRUE SITUATION

Of the Gubernatorial Contest in the Committee.

The Investigation Has Developed None-Votes Only Thrown Out on Flimsy Technicalities-Reck-

TRREA ALTA, W. VA., August 13.-The read the counties of Mason, Logan and Monroe, in addition to those reported Kee is still detained at home by the sickness of his child and Lively is also absent this week. Proba bly, therefore, the mere routine reading will continue all week, and no votes be one, no doubt, and where the condition of the patient is very dangerous, the treatment must be herole.

The committee might as well adjourn, and there appears to be no necessity for an extra session of the Legislature, for the Register's correspondent out here settled the whole contest in Tuesday's paper. Possibly this is an exemplification that fools rush in where angels fear to tread. What a brilliant thought for the correspondent to settle, in a day, what has taken the committee already several weeks of arduous labor to look into, and which will occupy it for several days yet.

Under the head of "Fleming's Heavy Gains," this correspondent announces that a gentleman who has been present at the sessions of the committee, speaking from a judicial standpoint, believes that Fleming will make a net gain of a hundred votes in the counties read but not not passed upon. It must have been the stenographer, as no one else but members of the committee has been present at the sessions. This gentleman, whoever he is, is simply stilled with a brilliant imagination. His judgment may be excellent in a game of poker, but is to be distrusted in a matter of contest for the office of Governor.

the election was fair in all the countles, and that nothing but the usual mis-understanding as to the law governing votes anywhere transpired. There were some illegal votes, but these were those of men who might fairly be supposed to have the right to vote.

The district question in Braxton coun-ty presents quite a different phase from that in Brooke county. In Braxton county, every district line is clearly proved.

In short, the whole statement in the Register is a mass of misrepresentation, a bad lot of rubbish, calculated to mislead the people and injure the fair fame of the State. Sufficient is known about the whole evidence to warrant the statement that only the basest partisan decisions can give the office of Governor of West Virginia to Judge Fleming. Singular to say, in the face of the extraordinary declarations made by Governor Wilson, the Wheeling Register, et al. Fleming has not made a single allegation of fraud in all his charges, and none worthy of mention is proved.

THE TRUE SITUATION.

as to those about which there may yet be a difference. In other words, if the minority of the committee could have had their way, Goff would now have a majority of about 170 instead of 110. In the end they will probably be able to present as good reasons why he should have a majority of 300 in the State, as the majority will be to present argument for wintever gain they decide Fleming-should make. This is the whole of the situation in a few words, and honesty and decency demand that it should thus be presented to the people, so they may understand it.

AN INJUNCTION GRANTED

STEUBERVILLE, O., August 13.—The

to get into Steubenville through alley A and the efforts of the City Council to secure such results, have to-night received a severe check. An injunction has been received from Judge Hance, of the Common Pleas Court at chambers Steubenville from further proceeding to condemn private property for the purpose of widening alley A; from im ing or collecting taxes to defray the expense of widening, and of entering a levy therefor upon tax duplicates. While this is a temporary injunction, subject to a final hearing at the October term of Court, yet it was heard and fully argued upon its merits, and it is unlikely the judge will reverse himself. It makes it doubtful that this railroad will enter Steubenville this year. Steubenville's loss might be Wheeling's gain. The injunction was secured by certain abutting property owners who objected to railroads occupying the alley. The majority of the citizens are very anxious for the railroad. The decision made a profound sensation upon the streets and before Council, and is the absorbing topic of conversation. Attorneys for the injunction were Captain Waldo, of Columbus, and Daton and Cook, of this city. Those against it were Batten, Hayes and Miller. pense of widening, and of entering a

There is not a word of truth in the statement that in Summers county a large number of negroes were imported from Virginia, or that such a condition of affairs ever existed in Kanawha county as represented, or that Mr. Elkins had anything whatever to do with dropping affegal votes around in Tucker county.

Superintendent Ramsey, of the Standard Works, was at Greensburg to-day and he stated that the situation in the region is anything but encouraging. The men at work in that locality are in constant fear lest the savage Huns descend upon them.

The police had their suspicions aroused some time ago that the doctor was conducting an unauthorized lying-in hospital. Last Sunday night the corpse of a young woman was carried from Harper's house to an undertaker's shop. The body was accompanied by a certificate of death made out in due form, signed by "Dr. Henry Haverlock." The police took charge of the remains, and later it was assertained that the body was that of Nellie Martin sged 20, and that the girl had died from malpractice. Yesterday a young man named Lenuel S. McCloud, who had been keeping company with the girl, was arrested. He claims that the girl came to him in her trouble for assistance; that e offered to send her to some refuge and pay her expenses until her child was born naturally. He declares that though he sent her to Dr. Harper's and made all arrangements for her stay there, is a wholly innocent of any oriminal. Circuit Court, for murder in the second degree, has been pardoned. The application sets forth extenuating circumstances under which the crime was committed, and is supported by the Judge before whom the case was tried; the Prosecuting Attorney and a number of good citizens. The penitentiary physician certified that the prisoner hall seriously injured one of his hands during his confinement, and is now unfit for manual labor, and the Superintendent testifies to his good record and model behavior. He has already served five years of his sentence. From the evidence in the Governor's; possession, he was satisfied that the case was a proper one for the exercise of the pardoning power, and acted accordingly. though he sent her to Dr. Harper's and made all arrangements for her stay there, he is wholly innocent of any criminal intent, and was net responsible for the girl's condition. Harper claimed that he was Dr. Stanford, and an assistant to Dr. Harper. escape from violence at the Banks of the few lawleres freinds of Blackwell, the murdered man. The negroes outside of Edgefield have given the trial and peril of Yeldell little or no attention, but the whites have been deeply interested as they realized that the honor of the State was at stake. Every effort was made to secure the safety of Yeldell and it required the greatest vigilance to prevent his murder in the court house. Later reports from Edgefield explains the reason why Yeldell was absent from court when the jury rendered its verdict. It seems that Mr. Penet, one of Yeldell's lawyers, was approached by the Solictor, who informed him that it was impossible for him to give the source of his information, but that if a verdict of "Not guilty" was rendered and Yelldell was in the dock, he would be shot down there in the presence of to assassinate D. L. Baxter, a well-known newspaper correspondent, by an explosion of a deally machine which was left at the Leader office directed to that gentleman. There was sufficient dynamite in the parcel to have blown up any building in the city, and it only failed to accomplish its deadly purpose owing to the percussion matches not limiting. The parcel was taken to the office by a negro boy. There being no suspicious look to the parcel he paid no attention to the appearance of the isad. It is believed by some that it was the intention to not only blow up Mr. Baxter, but the entire Leader office. and Yelldell was in the dock, he would be shot down there in the presence of the court. The matter was placed be-fore the Judge, who issued an order to require Yeldell's detention in jail when the verdict was brought in. This cir-cumstance probably saved his life from being taken and the law outraged by some madman from the dark corner of Edgetichl county.

The Brown-Sequard "Elixir of Life," r tonic, as it is now getting to be more commonly called, has been much talked about in Wheeling, and the talk has developed the fact that there are a surprising number with faith in the new medicine, and who, could they have the opportunity, would gladly have a dose injected into them. Last evening two residents of the North End were treated to the Elixir

Last evening two residents of the North End were treated to the Elixir, and the results are of considerable interest, not only to those who prepared the tonic, but also to the friends of those treated, and to a party of well known citizens who are much interested in the Brown-Sequard theory, and were anxious to see tests made.

The clixir was made from the procreative organs of a fine young buck lamb about five months old, procured and killed at the abattor of C. F. Bayba, in Stackyard Hollow.

An expedition was formed to go out after the necessary parts, consisting of Dr. Garrison, the well known City Health Officer, who was at the head of the expedition, Dr. Leon Reeler, the clever veterinary surgeon, Mr. M. R. Wolff and an INTELLICANCER reporter.

Dr. Reefer picked out the finest animal to be found on Bayba's place, and half an hour after the animal had been killed the expedition was at W. H. Williams' drug store in North Wheeling, with the parts necessary to make the tonic. They were carefully dressed, then shredded and triturated for the next half hour. Then the mass was placed in a linen cloth and submitted to strong pressure. Before pressing a drachm of distilled water was added to to the mass. The result of the pressure was about four onnees of an odorless liquid, pinkish in color, and of about the consistency of sperm oil.

Chosen for Bethany College—Dr. A. MeLean the Man.

A special called meeting of the Board of Trustees of Bethany College was held yesterday afternoon at the Granite House, Wellsburg, for the purpose of electing a successor to the late President,
W. H., Woolery,
Dr., W. K. Pendleton, the predecessor of President Woolery, was called to the chair, and twenty-lour of the thirty members of the Board answered to their names as the roll was called.

After the transaction of some preliminary business, nominations for the vacancy in the Presidency were announced as in order, and on motion Rev. Archibald McLean, of Cincinnati, was elected by acclamation to fill the position.

The name of Dr. J. J. Barclay, of Alabama, who had been prominently mentioned in connection with the position, was, by his own request, withheld from nomination.

Mr. McLean is a young man 38 years of age, and is at this time the Corresponding Secretary of the American Ohristian Missionary Society, in which capacity he has shown rare talent as an administrative officer and organizer. He is a native of Prince Edward's Island, Canadian Dominion, and a graduate of Bethany, class of 1874, at which time he received the highest honora of the institution. He is noted for his zeal, enthusiasm and efficiency in his position, and it is believed that he will carry these characteristics into the work to which he is now called. He has been an eminently successful man thus far in life, and he brings to his new field a ripe strength of character.

Among the trustees present at yesterday's meeting was the venerable ex-Governor R. M. Bishop, of Cincinnati. He bears his years well and came all the way from his home to cast his vote for a new head of the institution to whose fortunes he has so long been a devoted friend.

A sad feature of yesterday's meeting was the news of the death of another member of the family of President Woolery, a little daughter ten years of age, which event occurred Monday night. Resolutions of sympathy and condolence with his widow and remaining family were ordered to be prepared, spread upon the minutes and published, and on motion his salary was continued to his family until the first of January next.

The Board was handsomely enter tained yesterday at the Granite House, and one of the tables set for the occasion was graced by the presence of Judge John A. Campbell, who is holding a spe-cial term of court at Wellsburg.

eligible for the position.

General Boulanger has written a letter, in which he states that he gave the sums of money which he is accused of embersting, to the chief clerks in the war office to be used for the relief of widows and orphans.

Five lodgers in the house of Madame Pourpres, the former mistress of General Boulanger, have sworn that the General was in Paris on July 15, 1887, the day on which it is alleged he visited the city in disguise.

was in Fars on July 10, 1007, the cay on which it is alleged he visited the city in diaguise.

Upon the opening of the Senate Court to-day, the members of the Right declined to take further part in the proceedings in the case of General Boulanger. The Court discussed at length its course of proceedure and its competency to try General Boulanger. It was finally decided by a vote of 201 to 700 the Court was competent on the counts of the indictment. Two of the Senators refrained from voting. The Court then, by 200 votes, found the General guilty of conspiracy. Six of the Senators did not vote. The court found Count Dillon and M. Rochefort guilty of compilicity in the plot. It was decided by a vote of 198 to 10 that Bonlanger was guilty of treasonable attempt against the State in connection with the Lyons depot incident.

A PLEDGE OF FRIENDSHP.

ordial Exchange of Toasts Between the Emperors of Germany and Austria, Berlin, August 13.—Emperor Francis seph and Prince Bismarck were closeted together for an hour and ten minutes o-day, Subsequently the Chancellor and Count Kalnoky conferred together, the interview lasting an hour.

A banquet was given at the Schloss this evening.
Emperor William, in a toast, warmly welcomed the Austrian Emperor, and said: "You have learned, from the joysaid: "You have learned, from the joy-ful reception given you, of our warm and lively consciousness of the friend-ship that has existed between our peo-ple for a century. Before all is our army; a portion of which you have seen, proved by appearing before your keen soldierly eye. My people, like Italy, will hold firmly and faithfully to the al-liance which we have concluded. The army knows that for the maintenance of peace it will have to join the gallant army of Austria, and if Providence so decrees, they will fight together shoulder to shoulder."

Emperor Francis Joseph returned

Emperor Francis Joseph returned thanks for the brilliant reception accord-ed him. He drank to the health of his friend and ally, so near to his heart, inseparable in brotherhood and comrade-ship; to the health of the gallant armies of Germany and Austria, and to the strengthening of the guarantees of peace for the allied States and the whole of
